PETERSBURG, VA. September 8.—
Manager Ryan decided to send "Googles" O'Brien to the mound in this afternoon's game with the Goobers, and the twirler had the Petersburg batsmen at his mercy throughout the contest, keeping the hits well scattered excepting in the eighth inning, when the only taily for the home team was sent across the plate on three singles.

Richmond won the game in the first two innings by scoring four times off Johnson. In the third session Busch sent Hedgepeth to the mound, and he let the Richmonders down with one single and only allowing one bare on halls.

Schweitzer opened the game by teas-balls.

Schweitzer opened the game by teasing Johnson into giving him his base, newton promptly laid down a neat sacrifice, Berger sent a daisy cutter to right, an which Schweitzer scored. Rohe popped to Busch, Berger stole second and acored when Gray placed one into left field; Gray went to second on the throw to the plate to get Berger, and went to third when Johnson uncorked a wild pitch, Bunting ended the inning by lining out to Simmons.

In the second session singles by Ryan and O'Brien, the latter a neat bunt, started operations. Schweitzer lined to centre, and Newton popped to Agnew Berger caught one to his liking, and the ball stopped at the centre field fence, both runners scoring, and Berger taking third. Rohe was easy, Busch to Hirsch ending the inning.

In the next inning Hedgepeth went to the mound, after which only two Colts reached first base in seven innings.

Petersburg boomed up dangerous in the sixth, when Agnew led off with a sharp rap to left, but Busch messed the party when he hit into a double play. Barnett started the neventh with a double to centre, and got as far as third, when Strause choof matters by popping to O'Brien. In the eighth three singles in succession put one tally over for the Gooders.

Busch tried hard to land the game in the final inning by sending in Rice and Richmond as mach hitters, but O'Brien walked Rice and Richmond was out on a long fly to Berger, Hudgins ended the game by forcing Rice at second.

On account of the illness of Damrau, Busch sent Barnett to third, and Hirsch to the initial sack. The youngster covered the nogition in great shape, having seventeen put-outs.

To-morrow will close the series between Richmond and Petersburg, Manager Ryan will use Grimes as the mound artist in an effort to get an even break. The score:

Truckers.

NORFOLK, VA., Senjember 8.—Buck Pressly himself mailed the 1914 Virginia pennant to the Tars fore truck this afternoon, when his two-base blow in the second inning sent across the first two runs of the game with Portsmouth. The final score was 3 to 9.

Markle allowed only four hits in registering his thirtieth victory, and in addition touched Meintyre for two hits, both of them to right centre fence and good for two bases, had he not loafed in going to first.

In the first and second innings, Portsmouth had the bases full, but Markle retired the third man by the strike-out route, whiffing Folies in the first and Whitted in the second.

"He is Blank Govøy, 'There are other stars on the feam, but Gowdy is the one man in my estimation who is responsible for the team's winning streak.

COBB SPIKES BRITON

Shaping Up for World's Series

Connie Mack, with one eye to the windward, is carefully aursing Jack Coombs, the hero of the 1910 world's series, for service against the National League contenders for the world's banner in October. When the Giants faced the Athleties last year to buttle for the flag, Coombs was in the hospital with weights attached to his head and feet to drain the disease out of his spine—also a telephone hood attached to his head to bring to him the results of the world series play in the quick possible order. The other day Coombs pitched a fifteen-inning game and did not allow a ran after the first inning, which indicates that he is now in fairly good shape. With Coombs once more in the line-up, the National contenders will face the most powerful array of pitchers gathered together in modern times. Together with Coombs, there is Chief Render and Eddic Plank, both of whom are showing themselves to be in the best of working order. Mack figures that innsmuch as he captured last year's flag with only two of these men on the field, this year's series should be a waikover.

COACH SMITH PUSHING WAKE FOREST ELEVEN

WAKE FOREST ELEVEN

Hardest Task He Will Have Will Be
With Brackfield—First Game
Two Weeks Off.

WAKE FOREST, N. C., September S.—Coach Smith, assisted by Crozier, is pushing practice forward as rapidly as possible, and yesterday the menengaged in a brief scrimmage. Tillton Robertson, Dave Robertson's younger brother, will join the squad this afternoon. Young Robertson played good ball for Maury High the past two years, and is expected to prove a valuable man to Wake Forest.

The first game on the schedule is only two weeks off, and the coaches have no easy task on their hands. Of last year's linemen, Captain Moore. Stallings, Blackman, Harris and Powell are back. The backfield men of last year's eleven who have reported so far are Lee, Billings, and Duffy. Trust is expected daily. Several new men showed well in yesterday's scrimmage, but it is too early to make any predictions. It is evident that Smith's hardest task lays in the backfield and in the development of a punter. Savage, whose work as a punter stood forth se prominent last year, especially in the game with Davidson at Charlotte, has served his four years on the gridiron. But with practically all of last year's scrubs back and a vast amount of new material, Smith will, by a few days of strenuous practice, have an eleven on the field worthy of representing Wake Forest is eagerly looked forward to Forest.

Dave Robertson's arrival at Wake Forest is eagerly looked forward to by the coaches, and the entire student body. He wil have charge of the scrubs whie not assisting Smith the varsity. Fully as large a number of men, if not larger than last year, are on the field, and with an excellent staff of coaches and the oyal support of every Wake Forest man, the prospects for football at Wake Forest this year are unusually bright.
